Mass Intentions:

June 11, 2017, Trinity Sunday Intention: Elizabeth & Ambrose Volk

June 18, 2017, Feast of Corpus Christi, Intention: Marjorie Johannigman

PLC Notes:

Last Sunday a delegation from this parish attended the “Cross the Bridge for Life” walk in Newport, on the Levi. It was a true celebration of the GIFT of Human Life! Joining with hundreds of our fellow Christians to raise awareness and support LIFE in all of its stages, is a wonderful way to profess our Faith and put it into action. Please consider joining in the walk next year!

On Tuesday of this past week we received word of the death of Maudie Herbert, of Millhousen. Please keep her husband Dale, and all of the family in your prayers. The rosary will begin at 2:00 p.m. today at Porter-Oliger-Pearson Funeral Home, followed by visitation until 6:00 pm. The funeral Mass will be here at Immaculate Conception tomorrow morning at 10:00 am with burial in our cemetery immediately following. Thank you to all the ladies of the parish who are donating food and time.

One of the corporal works of mercy, as defined in our Catechism of the Catholic Church, is “burial of the dead.” Corporal Works of Mercy are charitable actions by which we help our neighbors in their bodily needs. The corporal (bodily) works of mercy are to: feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, shelter the homeless, clothe the naked, visit the sick, visit the prisoners, bury the dead, and give alms to the poor. As Christians, we are called to these actions, not just on occasion, or when it is convenient, or when we know the other person, but always! These are the actions by which we support one another, and reach out to others as the hands of Christ. So, when we go to a visitation, attend a funeral Mass, make food for the family, serve, sing, provide music, type programs or any other service, we are participating in the parish mission of reaching out to others. And we are doing Corporal Works of Mercy!

There are also “Spiritual Works of Mercy.” The Spiritual Works of Mercy are actions that help our neighbour in their spiritual needs. They include: counselling the doubtful, (listening), instructing the ignorant, admonishing the sinner, comforting the sorrowful, forgiving injuries, bearing wrongs patiently, and praying for the living and the dead.

Nominations are in for the Pastoral Council and for the Faith Formation Commission. The ballots will be cast next Sunday just prior to the beginning of Mass. Thank you sincerely to all those who have prayed and discerned their calling to serve in this capacity.

The summer brings lots of comings and goings. As some move from one kind of service to another we want to thank them for their past service, while engaging the new comers. We see this movement in the servers. Some go off to college and some enter the ranks for the first time. We say “thank you” and “welcome.”

A few words about our parish Auction:

The Committee will meet for the first time this morning, immediately following Mass, to kick off the Immaculate Conception Auction of 2017. This year we would like to broaden the participation base and invite all parishioners to get involved. While there are many ways to contribute time and energy, the kitchen has already been identified as one area in need of support. Please call if you have an hour or two to contribute. Look for more information soon from Jeff Chandler and Brian Huff.
