Sunday, July 21st - Sunday Mass will be at 8:30 AM

Missionary:

Sunday, July 28th, Bishop James Thoppil, from India, will be visiting. He will be talking about his missionary work in India.

National Eucharistic Congress:

In the lead up to the Eucharistic Congress, four routes of pilgrimage are slowly making their way to Indianapolis. The Seton route began in Connecticut and will be making its way through southeastern Indiana soon. Pilgrimage events will be held at All Saints, Guilford July 8th-11th, and at Shelbyville July 11th and 12th. Find more information to join this historic event at <https://812591.xyz/setonrt>.

A Word from Pope Francis:

"The gaze of God never stops at our past, full of errors, but looks with infinite confidence at what we can become. And if at times we feel we are people who are "small of stature", not up to the challenges of life and far less of the Gospel, mired in problems and sins, Jesus always looks at us with love. As with Zacchaeus, he comes towards us, he calls us by name and, if we welcome him, he comes to our home."

Inspiration from St. Pio:

Pray, hope and don't worry. Worry is useless.

God is merciful and will hear your prayer. Prayer is the best weapon we have; it is the key to God's heart. You must speak to Jesus not only with your lips but with your heart. In fact, on certain occasions you should speak to Him only with your heart.

If you can speak to the Lord, do so, praise Him, pray to Him, listen to Him.

If you are unable to speak due to your clumsiness, don't worry. In the ways of the Lord, stop in your room, like the courtiers, and pay Him homage. He, who will see this, will be pleased with your patience, will favor your silence, and on another occasion, you will be consoled. Padre Pio
