Religious Education Enrollment: It is time to plan for the 2024-2025 Religious Education year! Enrollment forms are available on the table in the back of church. We hope to have the following classes: Kindergarten, Grades 2/3, Grades 5/6, Grade 7, and Grades 8/9. There will not be a First Communion class or Confirmation class this year. Please return enrollment forms by August 4.

Thank you!

Catechists and Aides: If you would be willing to help share our Catholic Faith with our youth, please volunteer to help with our Religious Ed. program. Contact Jeanne Fry for more information.

Special Note to last year's Confirmation class--we would love to have you help us by being an aide in a Rel. Ed. classroom!

A Catechist plants the seed, spreads the Word, shows the way, shares the Faith!

Padre Pio:

"Do not fear adversities because they place the soul at the foot of the Cross, and the Cross places it at the gates of Heaven, where it will find He who triumphed over death and will introduce it to eternal life."

Pope Francis:

"I would like to highlight an experience which many of us have certainly had in life. When we are in difficult situations, when problems arise that we do not know how to resolve, when we feel a lot of anxiety and distress, when we lack joy, go to Our Lady and say: "We have no wine. The wine has run out: Look at the state I am in, look at my heart, look at my soul". Say it to the Mother. And she will go to Jesus to say: Look at this one: he or she has no wine. And then, she will come back to us and say: "Do whatever he tells you".

Sunday Readings:

The Hand of the Lord Feeds Us. Eating together not only signifies togetherness but also sustains and promotes it. It constitutes a beautiful means of communication. Happy the family that still insists on at least one meal together every day. It should be a meal begun and ended with a blessing. The family that prays (eats) together stays together! Today's First Reading and Gospel utilize the symbolism of eating to bring out a message. "The eyes of all look hopefully to you, O Lord, and you give them their food in due season."

Cemetery Housecleaning:

Cemetery guidelines request that flowers and decorations be put on a shepherd's hook, on the headstone, or on the concrete footer by the headstone. Several graves have flowers and decorations on the grave which interfere with the mowers. It would be appreciated if flowers and decorations were removed to make the mowing job easier.
