Mysteries of the Rosary Project: We hope you had the chance Friday evening to check out the students' projects based on the Mysteries of the Rosary. They did an awesome job and were very creative! Thank you to the parents for encouraging and helping their children with this project. If you did not get a chance to see the projects, they will still be on display in the school basement this morning until classes are over at 11:15.

First Friday Adoration:

Father is looking to start First Friday Adoration, holding adoration during the night of the first Friday of each month. This would begin Friday evening around 6 PM and end Saturday morning around 8 AM. If we get enough interest, Father is willing to conclude First Friday Adoration by celebrating Mass here on Saturday morning. If you would like to dedicate one hour per month to adoring the Lord, a sign-up sheet will be in the back of church.

Save the date:

Wednesday, November 6th, 6:00 PM, Jul & Grace Alvarez will be at Immaculate Conception Church to share their experiences when visiting Medjugorje. They will talk about how their visit changed their lives. Please plan to attend this inspirational visit. Perhaps it will change your life.

Pope Francis on Environment:

"We must not be indifferent or resigned to the loss of biodiversity and the destruction of ecosystems, often caused by our irresponsible and selfish behavior... Because of us, thousands of species will no longer give glory to God by their very existence ... We have no such right."

"The earth, our home, is beginning to look more and more like an immense pile of filth. In many parts of the planet, the elderly lament that once beautiful landscapes are now covered with rubbish."

"We received this world as an inheritance from past generations, but also as a loan from future generations, to whom we will have to return it!"

A little humor:

The new pastor stood at the church door greeting parishioners as they left following his first Mass after being appointed by the bishop. The comments were generally welcoming, except for one man who said, "That was a very dull and boring homily, Father."

A few minutes later, the same man showed up in the line again and said, "Father, I don't think you gave much thought to what you had to say this morning."

Minutes later the same man appeared again in the line, this time muttering, "You really blew it, Father. "

Finally, the priest could stand it no longer. He called the deacon over and asked who the man was.

"Him? Oh, that's Oliver. Don't let him bother you," said the deacon. "All he does is repeat whatever he hears other people saying."
