Eucharistic Procession: Next Sunday June 22nd: After Mass we will have our annual Eucharistic procession with the Blessed Sacrament. We will pray the rosary and sing hymns as we walk about the church grounds. There was a good crowd last year. Everyone found it inspiring and enjoyable.

No Mass: there will not be Mass on Thursday, June 26th or July 3rd. Father will be on retreat.

Father Bill Turner: Is celebrating his 50th anniversary of Ordination this month. On Sunday, June 29th, we would like to thank him for the many years he has been associated with our parish. We will be serving cake and ice cream in the school basement after Mass. Please stop by to congratulate Father Bill.

The parish outreach for June will be New Directions of Decatur County. New Directions is a domestic violence shelter for women and children in Greensburg. Last year, they assisted 212 clients. The main services that they offer are safety planning, advocacy, assistance obtaining protective orders, court and law enforcement accompaniment, and assistance with food and emergency housing. New Directions strives to increase social consciousness about domestic violence and to assist individual victims by helping them break free from the cycle of physical and emotional abuse. New Directions would greatly appreciate soap, shampoo, conditioner, deodorant, dental products, cleaning supplies, toilet paper, paper towels, facial tissues, laundry soap, etc. Any product donations may be brought to church during the month of June and placed in containers in the back of church. Additionally, envelopes marked with New Directions are in the pews and may be placed in the regular collection if you prefer to give cash or check. If you have any questions, please contact Kate Bedel at 812-614-0987.

Some thought:

God directs everything with wonderful wisdom. Only we don't always know immediately what everything is good for.

Trinity Sunday: The first thing our parents taught us about our religion was most probably the sign of the cross. The last thing a priest will do at our graveside is make the sign of the cross over our body. A Christian's life is marked "in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." The Sunday readings often speak to us about the Father sending his Son and communicating the Spirit. The revelation of God as Father, Son and Holy Spirit tells us first of all what God is for us. But as to the mysterious unity of Father, Son and Holy Spirit, we can only stammer with inadequate human concepts, which are not able to express the ineffable mystery of God in himself. We must realize that more important than knowing about God, is knowing God, the way two beloved know one another. "Oh, the depths of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How inscrutable are his judgments, and how unsearchable his ways." (Rom 11:33)

A little humor: Despite his pastor's many sermons over the years about using talents and treasures wisely, a stingy old man was determined to disprove the saying, "You can't take it with you."

So when he was diagnosed with a terminal illness, he instructed his wife to go to the bank and withdraw enough money to fill two pillowcases. He then directed her to take the bags of money to the attic and leave them directly above his bed.

His plan: When he passed away, he would reach out and grab the bags on his way up to heaven.

Months after the funeral, the wife, up in the attic cleaning, came upon the two forgotten pillowcases stuffed with cash.

"Oh, that old fool," she thought. "I knew he should have had me put the money in the basement."
