Reading Reflections:

In the First Reading the night of the passover refers to the night of the Exodus from bondage in Egypt. Whatever happened to human beings, faith in God assures them that somehow God will step in with his loving care.

As believers, we feel happy with the sure knowledge of a loving God who cares. "See the eyes of the Lord are upon those who fear him, upon those who hope for his kindness."

The second reading from a letter to the Hebrews talks of Abraham who went out, not knowing where he was to go. However, faith in God made his journey meaningful. We are pilgrims who go through the valley of darkness. Faith in a destiny makes the journey meaningful. Abraham's faith was tested. So will yours be! Faith implies an element of doubt, just as love does. You cannot always possess it peacefully. Like love, faith must be fostered by communication, i.e. meditative prayer!

A little humor:

A driver tucked a note under her windshield wiper: " I've circled the block for 20 minutes. I'm late for an appointment, and if I don't park here I'll lose my job. Forgive us our trespasses."

Returning, she came back to find a parking ticket and another note: "I've circled the block for 20 years, and if I don't give you a ticket I'll lose my job. Lead us not into temptation."
