Reading reflections:

The Sacred Scriptures, Source of Wisdom. Through the media we have contact with people. Since association with people helps make us the kind of persons we are, we should be selective. Youngsters whose parents do not care with whom they are associated through the media inevitable hurt themselves. The books you read and the shows you watch reveal a great deal about you. There is an unsurpassed best-seller, know as "The Book", the Bible. It is best sold though probably not best-read, and certainly not best-understood.

As believers, we know that through this medium, the Bible, we associate with God. But we should realize that the Bible is st a human word, which was written in a time and culture alien to us. Hence it requires some exertion on our part to be understood. Is it worthwhile to put out that effort? Yes! Because through a human word in the Bible, we discover God's word. God inspired and guided the sacred writers! In reading the Bible, we associate with God, if we do it as it should be done, i.e., prayerfully and meditatively. Reading the Bible makes you a different person. Today's Liturgy deals with prayer and Bible reading.

November 9th Archdiocese of the Military Services:

This collection is taken every three years and supports the Archdiocese of the Military Services. There is not an envelope for this collection, but it is a very important cause to support all the men and women who serve our country.

A little Humor:

A newly ordained deacon was asked to hold a graveside service for someone with no family or friends. It was his first official assignment, so he eagerly agreed.

Taking his duties very seriously, the deacon left early the next morning for the cemetery. However, he made several wrong turns and quickly got himself lost.

When he finally arrived more than an hour late, the hearse was nowhere to be seen and the two workmen were eating lunch.

The deacon got out of his car, quickly threw on his vestments, and hurried to the open grave. Looking into the pit, he saw that the vault lid was already in place. With a sigh, he took out his prayer book and read the burial service.

After he had left, one of the workmen said to the other, "Maybe we should have told him he just blessed a septic tank."

But if from thence thou shalt
seek the Lord thy God,
thou shalt find him, if thou seek him with all thy heart
and with all thy soul.
Deuteronomy 4:29
