Reflection on the readings:

Jesus himself did not need a baptism of repentance, but by going to John he set an example for others. The voice from heaven confirms Jesus' mission. Matthew's wording is very close to that of the first Bible Reading. He tells in his way that Jesus is in fact that 'Servent of Yahweh,' as depicted in the Gospel. Relate the Gospel and first Bible reading to your calling as a baptized Christian!

In the second reading Peter sees Jesus as in his baptism "anointed...with the Holy Spirit and power" and so equipped for his calling, doing good works and healing all who were in the grip of the devil.

A similar calling is ours as baptized Christians. Being a Christian does not mean just avoiding sin. We are anointed to do good and to be concerned about other human beings.

Lenten Book Study

We will begin on Wednesday, Feb. 25th at 7:00pm. We will be reading Eyes Fixed on Jesus – A Journey into the Gospels, Volume 1 by Meg Hunter-Kilmer. If you are interested in joining us or want more information, please call or text Ruth Gilly at (812)614-5626

Candlelight Vigil — Join Decatur County Right to Life on January 21, 2026, at 6:45 p.m. at St. Mary's Greensburg, as we mark the 53rd anniversary of Roe v. Wade.

Pickleball notifications: If anyone wants their name and # added to the pickleball notifications, they can send it to Steve or Diane AmRhein.

A little Humor: A priest had an important appointment with the bishop downtown but couldn't find a parking spot. Because he was late he finally took a chance and left his car in a no-parking zone.

He put a note under the windshield wiper that read: "I have circled the block 10 times. If I don't park here, I'll miss my appointment with the bishop. Forgive us our trespasses."

When he returned two hours later, he found a parking ticket and a note from the beat cop. It read, "I've circled this block for 10 years. If I don't give you a ticket I'll lose my job. Lead us not into temptation."
