A Word from Pope Leo:

“Beginning with St. Peter and up to myself, his unworthy successor, the pope has been a humble servant of God and of his brothers and sisters, and nothing more than this.” — Address to the College of Cardinals, May 10, 2025. This statement is a powerful expression of papal humility and continuity. Pope Leo is placing himself within the long line of successors to St. Peter, the first pope, affirming that the role of the pope is not about power, prestige or personal greatness, but about service.

.14th Sunday in Ordinary Time:

Earthly kindgoms and nations came into being usually through violence – war, revolution. Authoritarian rule keeps them together. Even necessary improvements in society – social justice and civil rights- are often carried out only after violent killing. The divine Master was sent to initiate God’s kingdom of love and justice on our planet. But our Lord wants it to be done in his own way. Jesus, too, is a king, ruling a kingdom. But how different he is from the leaders of this world.

Happy Birthday America: This weekend we are celebrating the 4th of July. Also known as Independence Day. The Declaration of Independence, July 4, 1776, echoes the preciousness of each life: “We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, That among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.” Let us never take God’s Word for granted when it comes to our human dignity, and let us pray in thanksgiving for our religious freedom. (Living Faith)

A little humor: An older nun who was living in a convent next to a construction site noticed the coarse language of the workers and decided to spend some time trying to correct their ways.

She decided she would take her lunch, sit with the workers, and talk with them. She put a sandwich in a brown bag and walked over to the spot where the men were eating. Sporting a big smile, she walked up to the group and asked: “ And do you men know Jesus Christ?” They shook their heads and looked at each other, very confused. One of the workers looked up into the steelworks and yelled out, “Anybody up there know Jesus Christ?” One of the workers yelled down, “Yeah, why?” “His wife’s here with his lunch.”
