Thank you for your willingness to share your time and talents in service to our parish.

19th Sunday in Ordinary time:

Human life is a remarkable mixture of that famous "smile and a tear". We all have our ups and downs in life. We attend both weddings and funerals. Parents witness graduations and often the failures of their children as well. Married life can be like the smell of roses and turn into a nightmare. Young people are successful today and can be turned down tomorrow. Friends may disappoint us and we may witness infidelity not only in our government, but even in our Church. All this may leave us confused and downcast. What are we to do? Are we to give up our faith in God?

The night Jesus' disciples were in serious trouble, their boat being tossed about in the waves. Lack of faith made them desperate and perhaps Peter would have drowned if he had not cried out: "Lord save me?" God's word to everyone tossed about on the waves of life is: Find a quiet moment for yourself, search for God, pray with faith:

"Lord, save me!"
